When is Mr Blanchard? Mr Kellogg is in Scotland, and has been for two months. I have no doubt he is labouring in his vocation. What a Mr Leavitt likely to do?
Does he remain Editor of the Independent? I would like to be near to a person of more prominent Connection with Ecclesiastical questions than he is at present. I feel quite an interest in him, and indeed in all of you whom I had the pleasure of knowing here. Give me all the information you can.

Nor C writes in very kind regards.

I Send you an Account to day, which when read, you can show to our Brother Leavitt, with my best Regards.

I Send him a Pastoral to day with a long Week of Joseph Sturge. I hope you and he may make some use of it in the Lancashire and Evangelist. I am prepared with some Care, and in my Workmanship - you will Notice it Closely, it can Amuse, & he is a Devotee of Mine I am Accordingly interested in your Letters in the Evangelist - and intend to take further Notice of them. They are Admirable, & Considering your short Way, Wonderful. My best Regards to Mrs. Thompson when you see them. With the Love, & I am Anxious to hear from you, and believe me, my Dear Brother, Affectionately Yours James Carlile in America" about one in two months - and I will send you in print - that is, in the Cleaning, a similar letter on "Men & Measures in England". We could then send many things, & Spenn many others, which I could not with propriety take up editorially. Do think of this - Consult our Colored Cotton, Leavitt, what it - and if you approve the plan, let me have a letter for the January number. You could send it by a Sailing Packet to be after this reach you. I am sorry I cannot enter more into detail, but you have the general idea upon you; and I know what you can capable of doing.

Rev. J. Carlile
Nov. 18. 1843.

104

Hackney. London.
Nov. 18 - 1843.

My Dear Brother,

I have time to day only for a few lines, though I had intended to write you a long letter. I took leave with painful feelings on the 13th when we took Counsel together, and I am now anxious to perpetuate our friendship.

I know you are a discerning Congregationalist
So am I. I wish we may do something to benefit our respective Countries and Churches through the Medium of the Christian Examiner. I have a thought that the following would be a good plan - send me a letter on "Home Missions